

Registered charity No.238005

www.ccj-hillingdon.org.uk

Anthropology in the Bible

the study of the human and of human society

explored and explained

by

Rabbi Hillel Athias-Robles

Assistant Rabbi

Northwood & Pinner Liberal Synagogue

Studying for a MSc in Social Anthropology at UCL

When anthropology began to take shape as a science in the 19th Century, scholars found many similarities between the practices and taboos they found in traditional societies in Oceania, Africa, and Native America and those described in the Bible.

Rabbi Hillel will be looking at biblical taboos and practices and the ways anthropologists have understood them to this day.

Socialising & Light Refreshments

ALL ARE WELCOME

Entry £1.50 [CCJ members £1.00]

8.00 pm

Tuesday 17 November 2009

Emmanuel Church Africa Lounge
High Street Northwood HA6 1AS