Holocaust Survivor

Freddie Knoller

Born in Vienna in 1921, he lived happily with his parents and his two brothers until 11 March 1938, when Austria was annexed by Germany. His life, during the tragic period 1938 - 1945, reads like a novel: arrests, prison, escapes, hiding with false papers, joining the resistance and surviving concentration camps.

But luck and courage saved him from extermination

Followed by socialising & light refreshments
